Re: Request for Waiver of Late Penalty
Fiscal Year 2000 Regulatory Fees
Fee Control No. 00000RROG-03-034
Bill No. 2001-9-0191

Dear Ms. Campbell:

This responds to your request dated January 9, 2001 for waiver of the late charge penalty for late payment of the regulatory fee for fiscal year (FY) 2000 for television station W22AN. Your request responds to our letter, dated January 3, 2001, advising of the assessment of a 25 percent late charge penalty of $70.00, because the regulatory fee, which was due on September 22, 2000, was received on October 5, 2000.

You submit that good cause exists to waive the penalty for late payment. You indicate that information concerning payment of the regulatory fee was sent to the address of the previous licensee, who forwarded the material only after the September 22, 2000 due date. You believe you should be exempt from any late payment penalties because "this is [y]our first time paying" the regulatory fee.

The Commission's rules are clear that licensees, such as A1A TV, Inc., are required to pay to the Commission an annual regulatory fee in a timely manner and that failure to pay the fee by the announced filing deadline will result in the assessment of a 25 percent penalty for late payment. See 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1157, 1.1164. The Communications Act of 1934, as amended, also requires that the Commission assess a late charge penalty of 25 percent on any regulatory fee that is not paid in a timely manner. See 47 C.F.R. § 159(c). It is the current licensee, rather than the former licensee, that is ultimately responsible for paying the regulatory fee and for ensuring it is received no later than the final date on which fees are due for the year. The Commission issued a Public Notice announcing that FY 2000 regulatory fees were due on September 22, 2000 and must be received at Mellon Bank by that date in order to avoid a mandatory 25 percent late payment penalty. See Public Notice: Extension of Fiscal Year 2000 Regulatory Fee Filing Window, 15 FCC Rcd 17999 (Sept. 19, 2000). Despite the recent acquisition of the station, A1A TV, Inc., as a Commission licensee, had a responsibility to familiarize itself with the Commission's rules and requirements; and its lack of familiarity with those rules does not mitigate or excuse the late payment of the regulatory fee for FY 2000. Licensees are expected to know and comply with the Commission's rules and regulations and will not be excused for violations thereof, absent clear mitigating circumstances. Outlet Communications Inc. and Atlin Communications Inc., 7 FCC Rcd 632 (1992), citing, Emporium Broadcasting Co., 23 FCC 2d 868 (1970) (claimed inexperience in selling time to candidates did not excuse violation of Section 315(b) of the Communications Act). Clear, mitigating circumstances that would justify waiver of the 25 percent penalty for late payment of the regulatory fee have not been demonstrated in this case. We therefore deny your request for waiver of the late penalty.

Jill Campbell, President

Payment of A1A TV Inc.'s late payment penalty of $ 70.00 for FY 2000 should be submitted, together with a copy of Bill 2001-9-0191 (copy enclosed), within 30 days of the date of this letter. You are advised that continued failure to pay the penalty may subject you to further sanctions, including the initiation of a proceeding to recover the penalty and any accrued interest pursuant to the provisions of the Debt Collection Improvement Act. See generally 47 C.F.R. § 1.1164.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact the Revenue & Receivables Operations Group at (202) 418-1995.

Sincerely,

for Mark A. Reger
Chief Financial Officer

Dear Andrew:

This letter is in reply to a letter from Susan Donahue dated January 3, 2001, regarding a penalty that is due for paying our annual regulatory fees late for W22AN. I believe we can show just cause as to why this penalty is inapplicable. As the enclosed envelope will show, the information concerning payment for the regulatory fees was sent to the correct company name, but the previous licensee's (Lumen) address. Gloria Adreani, who resides at 160 Supreme Court, forwarded us the information as soon as she returned from vacation, which was after the due date. Since we received the information after the due date and this is our first time paying, I believe you will find that we should be exempt from any late penalties.

I appreciate your help in this matter. If I can be of further assistance, please call me: (904) 794-6774.

Sincerely,
Jill Campbell, President

Re: W22AN

Dear Licensee:

This letter is notice that you were late paying your 2000 annual regulatory fee(s). Payment of regulatory fees was due to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) by midnight, September 22, 2000. Your fee payment of $ 280.00 has received on Oct. 05, 2000.

In accordance with Section 9 [47 USC 159(c)(1)], a 25 percent late penalty in the amount of $ 70.00 has been assessed. Unless you can show just cause why the penalty is inapplicable, payment is due within 20 days from the date of this letter.

Payment should be sent to the Federal Communications Commission, Regulatory Fees, P.O. Box 358835, Pittsburgh, PA 15251-5835, along with a copy of the enclosed billing invoice.

If you have any documentation that will establish that the fee was remitted and received at Mellon Bank by September 22, 2000, such as a carrier dated receipt, please include this documentation with your response so that we can clear your record(s).

You are cautioned that failure to respond and/or pay the penalty will subject you to further sanctions as defined in 47 CFR, Section 1.1164 of our Rules. These sanctions include subjecting the delinquent payer's pending applications to dismissal, and may require a delinquent payer to show cause why any existing instruments of authorization should not be revoked. Further sanctions include interest charges, and the full cost of collection to the Federal government pursuant to Section 3720A of the Internal Revenue Code, 31 USC 3717, and the provision of the Debt Collection Act, 31 USC 3717.

If you have any question, you may contact my office at (202) 418-1995.

Sincerely,

Susan A. Donahue, Chief
Revenue and Receivables Operations Group
